How to Deal with Bullying

This book belongs to

I don't know why – but sometimes kids are really mean.

Today, something happened at school that really, really bothered me. It made me so mad! I promised myself that I wouldn't let it happen again.

There's a kid in my school who is really little. He's skinny and wears glasses and he's really smart.

Today, one of the bigger kids pushed him and he broke his glasses. He started to cry.

It broke my heart. That was so mean!
Besides, that could have been me! It could have been my glasses!

There has to be a way to stop bullying.

First, I had to get some of my friends together.

If we were to stop bullying, it had to be a group effort.

"Bullying has to stop!" I told them. "Tell me about it!" said Lisa. "Bullies are Bad," said Tim. "We need a No Bullying Zone," I said.

We talked to our teachers.

"You were right to talk to a grown-up," my teacher said. "We care about our students. We don't want them to be bullied. And I like your idea for a No Bullying Zone!"

Soon our school had posters telling kids about the No Bullying Zone
in our school.

Teachers talked to all the kids about bullying. From this day on bullying was NOT allowed in our school! EVER!

The whole school was now a No Bullying Zone!
